Adventure Auction 2025!

We are putting together another Adventure Auction. If you are able to donate an adventure or know of a business that is willing to donate to BCHBC please complete the online form found on our website. Let's make this an amazing auction full of wonderful memories and new friends.

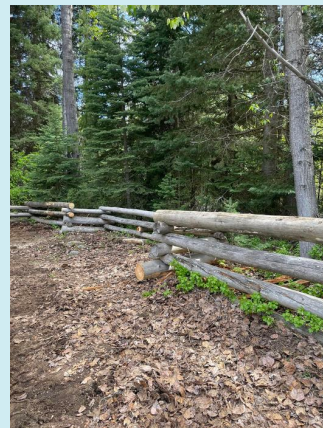

Sue Hunt and Linda Buchanan doing a presentation at the Skimikin Trail Naming Dedication Ceremony. Thank you ladies (and your loyal band of volunteers!) for all the work you do and have done to keep this equestrian camp and trail network alive and improving.

Thank you to Jim McCrae and Valuable Volunteers for hosting a provincial fundraising Packing Clinic at the ranch in Tulameen. Funds raised are to be used for a project on the historic Hudson Bay Brigade Trail.

Paradise Cabin corrals have been rebuilt thanks again to our dedicated BCHBC volunteers! This is up the Dewdney Trail in Manning Park.

Another project completed by BCHBC volunteers. Headwater's perimeter fence was completely re-done. Now the horses are even safer.

Have any pictures that you want to share? Any stories or write ups about something happening in your chapter? Please send to newsletter@bchorsemen.org
